

Maidenhead.com

Business Subscription & Promotional Service Cancellation Policy

Effective Date: [Insert Date]

Legal Entity: The Maidenhead Partnership Group | Company Number: [COMPANY NUMBER] |

Registered Office: [REGISTERED OFFICE ADDRESS]

Maidenhead.com and The Maidenhead App

For the purposes of these Terms, references to “Maidenhead.com” or the “Platform” mean the Maidenhead.com website, The Maidenhead App and the related digital services operated by The Maidenhead Partnership Group, unless the context specifically refers to the website or app separately.

1. Purpose of This Policy

This Cancellation Policy explains the process and terms that apply when a business (“Business”, “you”, “your”) wishes to cancel a membership subscription, advertising package, promotional service or any other paid service purchased from The Maidenhead Partnership Group through Maidenhead.com or The Maidenhead App. For the purposes of this Policy, The Maidenhead Partnership Group is the contracting entity and is referred to as “Maidenhead.com”, “we”, “us” or “our” where the context relates to the platform or its services.

This policy forms part of the Maidenhead.com Business Terms and Conditions.

By purchasing any Maidenhead.com service, the Business agrees to the terms of this Cancellation Policy.

2. Types of Services Covered

This policy applies to:

Membership Subscriptions

Including:

- Basic free;
- Visibility Membership;
- Any future paid membership plans introduced on the Maidenhead.com platform and The Maidenhead App.

Promotional and Advertising Services

Including but not limited to:

- Homepage Spotlight Features;
- Spotlight Stories;
- In Focus Feature Articles;
- Homepage hero video Features;
- Events Calendar Promotions;
- Push Notification Campaigns;
- Newsletter Features;
- Paid promotional campaigns;
- Any other advertising or marketing service.

3. Cancellation of Membership Subscriptions

Version 20.06.20 The Maidenhead Partnership Group

3.1 Recurring Monthly and Yearly Subscriptions

Paid membership subscriptions operate on a recurring monthly or yearly basis unless otherwise agreed.

A Business may request cancellation at any time.

Cancellation will:

- Prevent future subscription renewals;
- Remove future subscription charges;
- Allow the Business to continue using paid features until the end of the current paid subscription period.

3.2 Cancellation Notice

Businesses should provide cancellation requests before their next renewal date.

Where cancellation is received after a renewal payment has been processed:

- The subscription will remain active until the end of that paid period;
- No automatic refund will be provided for the unused period.

3.3 Removal or Downgrade of Membership

Following cancellation:

- Paid features may be removed at the end of the paid period;
- The Business may be moved to the free Basic listing where available;
- Additional paid profile features may no longer be displayed.

Maidenhead.com reserves the right to remove content associated with expired paid services where applicable.

4. Cancellation of Promotional Services

Promotional services are often prepared, scheduled and allocated specifically for a Business.

These include:

- Homepage features;
- Featured articles;
- Newsletter placements;
- Push notifications;
- Event promotions;
- Advertising campaigns.

4.1 Cancellation Before Publication

If a Business cancels a promotional service before publication or activation:

Maidenhead.com may consider a refund request depending on:

- The amount of preparation already completed;
- Whether resources have already been allocated;
- Whether content has been created, reviewed or scheduled.

Any refund decision will be at Maidenhead.com's discretion.

4.2 Cancellation After Publication or Activation

Version 28.09.28 The Maidenhead Partnership Group

Once a promotional service has:

- Been published;
- Gone live;
- Been scheduled;
- Been distributed;
- Been included within marketing materials;

the service is considered delivered.

The Business acknowledges that:

- Refunds will generally not be available;
- The Business remains responsible for payment;
- Removal of a promotion does not automatically create a refund entitlement.

5. Advertising Campaign Cancellation

For advertising campaigns purchased for a specific period:

Examples:

- Homepage Hero Feature;
- Homepage Spotlight;
- In Focus Feature;
- Newsletter Feature.

The Business acknowledges that advertising space may have been reserved exclusively.

If cancelled after confirmation:

- Maidenhead.com may retain payment;
- Reserved advertising space may not be resold;
- Preparation costs may already have been incurred.

6. Content Removal Following Cancellation

Upon cancellation of any paid service:

Maidenhead.com may:

- Remove promotional placements;
- Remove advertising features;
- Remove enhanced profile content;
- Remove images or articles associated with paid services;
- Retain basic business information where applicable.

Removal timing may depend on operational requirements.

7. Refund Policy

Unless otherwise required by applicable law:

Maidenhead.com does not provide refunds for:

- Partially used subscription periods;
- Missed promotional opportunities;

- Lack of customer engagement;
- Lack of enquiries or sales;
- Business closure;
- Change of business circumstances;
- Failure to provide content on time;
- Failure to achieve expected results.

Version 28.09.26 · The Maidenhead Partnership Group

8. Business Responsibility Before Cancellation

Before cancelling, businesses should ensure:

- Outstanding customer enquiries have been managed;
- Promotional campaigns have been reviewed;
- Any active offers or events have been updated;
- Any required information has been saved.

Maidenhead.com accepts no responsibility for loss of information following cancellation or removal of services.

9. Cancellation Process

To cancel a service, businesses must submit a cancellation request through the platform support ticket or by emailing hello@maidenhead.com.

The cancellation request should include:

- Business name;
- Account holder name;
- Contact details;
- Service being cancelled;
- Requested cancellation date.

Maidenhead.com may request verification that the person requesting cancellation has authority to act on behalf of the Business.

10. Suspension or Cancellation by Maidenhead.com

Maidenhead.com reserves the right to suspend or terminate services where:

- These Terms and Conditions are breached;
- Content is inappropriate or misleading;
- The Business creates reputational risk;
- Payment obligations are not met;
- Continued service provision is unsuitable.

Where termination occurs due to Business breach:

- Payments already made remain payable;
- Refunds will not normally be provided;
- Promotional content may be removed immediately.

11. No Guarantee of Results

The Business acknowledges that cancellation decisions cannot be based on guaranteed performance outcomes.

Maidenhead.com does not guarantee:

- Increased customers;
- Increased website traffic;
- Increased enquiries;
- Increased bookings;
- Increased revenue.

Version 28.09.26 · The Maidenhead Partnership Group

Advertising and promotional services provide visibility opportunities only.

12. Changes to This Policy

Maidenhead.com reserves the right to update this Cancellation Policy from time to time. The latest version published on the Maidenhead.com website will apply.

13. Governing Law

This Cancellation Policy shall be governed by the laws of England and Wales.

Any disputes shall be subject to the exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of England and Wales.

Business Acceptance

By purchasing any Maidenhead.com subscription or promotional service from The Maidenhead Partnership Group, the Business confirms that it understands:

- Cancellation does not automatically entitle the Business to a refund.
- Paid subscriptions continue until cancellation takes effect.
- Promotional services may become non-refundable once preparation or publication has commenced.
- Maidenhead.com does not guarantee commercial results from any service.
- The Business remains responsible for all payments due.