1. Who We Are

Maidenhead.com and The Maidenhead App are operated by The Maidenhead Partnership Group.

For the purposes of this Privacy Policy:

- “Maidenhead.com” means www.maidenhead.com and the related Maidenhead.com website services;
- “The Maidenhead App” means the Maidenhead.com mobile application;
- “we”, “us” and “our” mean The Maidenhead Partnership Group;
- “Platform” means Maidenhead.com, The Maidenhead App and related digital services operated by us.

The Maidenhead Partnership Group is the organisation responsible for the operation of the Platform and, where applicable, the processing of personal information described in this Privacy Policy.

Company Number: [INSERT COMPANY NUMBER]

Registered Office: [INSERT REGISTERED OFFICE]

Privacy Email: [INSERT PRIVACY EMAIL]

This Privacy Policy explains how we collect, use, store and protect personal information when you visit or use Maidenhead.com or The Maidenhead App.

We are committed to handling personal information responsibly and in accordance with applicable UK data protection law, including the UK General Data Protection Regulation and the Data Protection Act 2018, as amended or replaced from time to time.

2. Information We May Collect

The information we collect depends on how you use the Platform.

2.1 Website and App Usage

When you use Maidenhead.com or The Maidenhead App, we may collect technical and usage information such as:

- IP address;
- Browser type;
- Device type;
- Operating system;
- Approximate location information;
- Pages or screens viewed;
- Features used;
- Links clicked;
- Date and time of activity;
- Referring website;
- Technical and diagnostic information;
- Information relating to website or app performance.

Some of this information may be collected through cookies, analytics tools or similar technologies.

2.2 Information You Provide to Us

You may provide personal information when you:

- Contact us;

- Submit an enquiry;
- Report incorrect information;
- Submit content;
- Enter a competition or promotion;
- Subscribe to communications;
- Use a feature that requires personal information;
- Communicate with our support team.

This may include your:

- Name;
- Email address;
- Telephone number;
- Enquiry details;
- Other information you choose to provide.

2.3 Business Enquiries

If you use Maidenhead.com or The Maidenhead App to contact a business, we may process information such as:

- Your name;
- Email address;
- Telephone number;
- Enquiry details;
- Booking information;
- Other information you choose to provide.

Depending on how the relevant feature operates, your information may be passed to the business you have contacted so that it can respond to you.

Once your information has been provided to that business, the business may become independently responsible for how it uses your personal information.

You should refer to the relevant business's own privacy notice where appropriate.

2.4 Cookies and Similar Technologies

We may use cookies and similar technologies to:

- Make the website function properly;
- Maintain security;
- Remember preferences;
- Understand how the Platform is used;
- Measure website and app performance;
- Improve our services;
- Support analytics;
- Provide marketing functionality where applicable.

Where required by law, we will obtain your consent before using non-essential cookies or similar technologies.

You may be able to manage cookie preferences through our cookie-management system or your browser/device settings.

3. How We Use Personal Information

We may use personal information for purposes including:

Providing and operating the Platform

- Providing website and app functionality;
- Responding to enquiries;

- Providing customer support;
- Managing submissions;
- Maintaining security;
- Providing requested services.

Version 28.09.26 · The Maidenhead Partnership Group

Improving the Platform

- Understanding how users interact with Maidenhead.com and The Maidenhead App;
- Improving search and discovery;
- Identifying technical problems;
- Monitoring performance;
- Developing new features;
- Improving the user experience.

Communications

We may use your contact information to:

- Respond to enquiries;
- Provide information you have requested;
- Send important service information;
- Communicate about submissions or interactions with us;
- Respond to support requests.

Marketing

Where permitted by applicable law, we may send information about:

- Maidenhead.com;
- The Maidenhead App;
- Local events;
- Features and services;
- Promotional opportunities;
- Other relevant information.

Where consent is required, we will obtain it.

You can unsubscribe from marketing communications at any time.

4. Our Lawful Bases for Processing

Depending on the circumstances, we may rely on one or more of the following lawful bases:

Consent

Where you have given consent for us to process your information for a particular purpose.

You may withdraw consent at any time. Withdrawal does not affect processing carried out before consent was withdrawn.

Contract

Where processing is necessary to provide a service you have requested or to take steps at your request before entering into a contract.

Legitimate Interests

Where processing is necessary for our legitimate interests, provided those interests are not overridden by your rights and freedoms.

Our legitimate interests may include:

- Operating and improving the Platform;
- Maintaining security;
- Preventing fraud and misuse;
- Understanding how our services are used;
- Responding to enquiries;

- Maintaining appropriate business records.

Legal Obligation

Version 28.09.26 · The Maidenhead Partnership Group

Where processing is necessary for us to comply with a legal or regulatory obligation.

5. Public Business Information

Maidenhead.com and The Maidenhead App are public business discovery platforms.

Business information submitted for publication may be visible to members of the public through:

- www.maidenhead.com;
- The Maidenhead App;
- Search results;
- Business profile pages;
- Articles;
- Events;
- Promotional features;
- Other Platform services.

This may include:

- Business name;
- Business address;
- Business telephone number;
- Website;
- Opening hours;
- Business description;
- Images;
- Logos;
- Social media links;
- Booking links;
- Offers;
- Events;
- Other information relating to the business.

Businesses are responsible for ensuring that information they provide to us can lawfully be published.

6. Information About Other People

Businesses and organisations may provide us with information about employees, representatives, customers, event attendees or other individuals.

The business or organisation providing that information is responsible for ensuring that it has the appropriate lawful basis, authority or permission to provide the information to us.

This may include photographs, names, contact details, testimonials or other information identifying individuals.

7. Images and Photographs

The Platform may contain photographs and other media supplied by businesses, organisations, event organisers or other contributors.

Where a business or organisation supplies an image containing identifiable individuals, that business or organisation is responsible for ensuring that it has the appropriate rights, permissions or lawful basis for providing the image to us.

We may remove images where we believe that:

- Appropriate permission has not been obtained;

- The image breaches applicable law;
- The image infringes another person's rights;
- The image is inappropriate for the Platform.

Version 26.09.26 - The Maidenhead Partnership Group

8. How We Share Personal Information

We may share personal information where necessary to operate the Platform or provide services.

Depending on the circumstances, this may include sharing information with:

- Payment providers;
- Website hosting providers;
- Cloud storage providers;
- Software and technology providers;
- Analytics providers;
- Email providers;
- Security and fraud-prevention providers;
- Professional advisers;
- Legal or regulatory authorities where required;
- A business where you have contacted that business through the Platform.

We only share information where there is an appropriate reason and lawful basis for doing so.

We do not sell personal information to third parties.

9. Third-Party Services

We may use third-party services to operate parts of Maidenhead.com and The Maidenhead App.

These may include services relating to:

- Payment processing;
- Hosting;
- Cloud storage;
- Analytics;
- Email;
- Maps;
- Booking systems;
- Security;
- Website and app functionality.

For example, payments for business services may be processed by third-party payment providers such as Stripe.

Where you interact directly with a third-party service, that third party may process your information under its own privacy policy and terms.

We are not responsible for the privacy practices of third-party websites or services that we do not control.

10. International Transfers

Some of our technology and service providers may process personal information outside the United Kingdom.

Where personal information is transferred outside the UK, we will take appropriate steps to ensure that the transfer is carried out in accordance with applicable data protection law.

This may include relying on an adequacy decision, appropriate contractual safeguards or another lawful transfer mechanism.

11. How Long We Keep Personal Information

We retain personal information only for as long as reasonably necessary for the purposes for which it was collected.

Version 28.09.26 · The Maidenhead Partnership Group

This may include retaining information where necessary to:

- Provide our services;
- Respond to enquiries;
- Maintain records;
- Comply with legal obligations;
- Resolve disputes;
- Prevent fraud;
- Protect the Platform;
- Enforce agreements.

Different types of information may be retained for different periods.

When information is no longer required, we will take reasonable steps to securely delete or anonymise it.

12. Data Security

We take reasonable technical and organisational measures to protect personal information against:

- Unauthorised access;
- Accidental loss;
- Destruction;
- Alteration;
- Unauthorised disclosure;
- Misuse.

However, no internet transmission or online storage system can be guaranteed to be completely secure.

13. Your Data Protection Rights

Depending on the circumstances and applicable legal requirements, you may have rights including:

- Access — to request a copy of personal information we hold about you;
- Rectification — to ask us to correct inaccurate information;
- Erasure — to ask us to delete information where there is no lawful reason for us to continue processing it;
- Restriction — to ask us to restrict processing in certain circumstances;
- Objection — to object to certain processing, including processing based on legitimate interests;
- Data portability — in certain circumstances, to receive information you have provided to us in a structured, commonly used and machine-readable format;
- Withdrawal of consent — where processing is based on consent.

You have an absolute right to object to direct marketing.

Some rights apply only in particular circumstances and may be subject to legal exemptions.

14. How to Exercise Your Rights

If you wish to exercise your data protection rights, contact:

Email: [INSERT PRIVACY EMAIL]

Please provide enough information for us to identify you and understand your request.

We may need to verify your identity before providing information or making changes.

We will normally respond within the time period required by applicable data protection law.

15. Marketing Communications

Where permitted by law, we may communicate with users about relevant Maidenhead.com and local community information.

Where consent is required, we will obtain it.

You can unsubscribe from marketing communications by:

- Using the unsubscribe link in a marketing email;
- Changing your communication preferences where available; or
- Contacting us using the details in this Privacy Policy.

Unsubscribing from marketing does not prevent us from sending essential service or transactional communications where appropriate.

16. Children

Maidenhead.com and The Maidenhead App provide information about businesses, services, events and activities in the local community.

The Platform is not specifically directed at children.

We do not knowingly seek to collect personal information from children in circumstances where parental consent is legally required.

If you believe that a child has provided personal information to us in circumstances where this should not have occurred, please contact us so that we can investigate.

17. Automated Decision-Making and Profiling

We do not currently make decisions based solely on automated processing, including profiling, that produce legal or similarly significant effects on individuals.

We may use automated technologies for purposes such as:

- Website and app analytics;
- Search functionality;
- Content organisation;
- Recommendations;
- Security monitoring;
- Fraud prevention;
- Service improvement.

These processes do not currently make decisions about individuals that have legal or similarly significant effects.

If this changes, we will update this Privacy Policy and provide any information required by applicable law.

18. Business Enquiries and Customer Information

If you use the Platform to contact a business, the information you provide may be passed to that business so that it can respond to your enquiry.

The business may then become an independent controller of the personal information it receives.

The business is responsible for complying with applicable data protection law when using information it receives from customers.

You should refer to the relevant business's own privacy notice where applicable.

19. Personal Data Breaches

If we become aware of a personal data breach, we will assess the breach and take appropriate action in accordance with applicable data protection law.

Where legally required, we will notify the Information Commissioner's Office and affected individuals.

20. Complaints

If you have concerns about how we have handled your personal information, please contact us first:

Email: [INSERT PRIVACY EMAIL]

We will investigate your concern and attempt to resolve it.

You also have the right to complain to the UK's data protection regulator:

Information Commissioner's Office (ICO)

Further information about data protection rights and complaints is available from the ICO.

21. Changes to This Privacy Policy

We may update this Privacy Policy from time to time to reflect:

- Changes to our services;
- Changes to how we process personal information;
- Changes to technology;
- Changes to legal or regulatory requirements.

The latest version will be published on www.maidenhead.com.

Where changes are significant, we will take reasonable steps to bring them to the attention of affected individuals where appropriate.

The Effective Date and Last Updated date at the beginning of this Privacy Policy indicate when the policy was last updated.
